BAND BIO

Trista and The Dreamers is a Cleveland-based tribute rock band celebrating the timeless music of Stevie Nicks and Fleetwood Mac, while also incorporating original songs that connect deeply with audiences. With over two decades of performance experience, the band has become known for powerful vocals, polished musicianship, and energetic live shows that keep crowds engaged from the first song to the last.

Performing regularly at taverns, wineries, festivals, and private events, Trista and The Dreamers deliver authentic interpretations of classic songs while maintaining a fresh and lively stage presence. Their shows invite audiences to sing along, dance, and relive the magic of Fleetwood Mac's legendary sound.

BAND MEMBERS

Trista Andrews – Lead Vocals & Songwriter

A lifelong vocalist and performer, Trista's voice and charisma anchor the band's sound. Her passion for the music of Stevie Nicks shines through every performance, bringing both power and emotional depth to the stage.

John Hurley – Guitar & Vocals

John brings energy, experience, and strong guitar work to the band. His musicianship and supporting vocals help create a full, dynamic live sound.

Bob Ratica – Keyboards & Guitar

Bob adds depth and versatility with keyboards and guitar, rounding out the band's arrangements and enhancing both classic covers and original material. Bob is a gifted composer and song arranger across many instruments.
